Commanding Officer

COMMANDER LOUIS P. ALDANA

Commander Louis P. ALDANA is a native of Idaho Falls, Idaho. He received a BS in Aeronautical Engineering from the University of Idaho and a BS in Marketing from the University of Colorado. Upon graduating from the University of Colorado, he was commissioned as an Ensign in the United States Navy. Commander ALDANA has served as Main Propulsion Assistant and Engineering Officer on the USS SPROSTON (DE-577), Harbor Defense Advisor with the Joint U.S. Military Aid Mission to Turkey, Chief Staff Officer of COMINERON EIGHT, Force Structures Plans Officer of COMUSMACV, Executive Officer of the USS ESTEEM (MSO-438), and Commanding Officer of USS BOLD (MSO-424). Commander ALDANA assumed Command of the USS ANCHORAGE (LSD-36) on 25 September 1973.

Commander ALDANA has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal, the Joint Service Commendation Medal, the Navy Commendation Medal, and the Navy Achievement Medal.

Commander ALDANA is married to the former Sue CLARDY of Felton, California. They have two children, Tye Louis and Christen Carman.

Executive Officer

LIEUTENANT COMMANDER FRANCIS M. KIRK

Lieutenant Commander Francis M. KIRK is a native of Moneks Corner, South Carolina. He received a BS degree from the United States Naval Academy in 1961 and was commissioned as an Ensign in the United States Navy. Upon receiving his commission he was assigned to the USS BORDELON (DDR-881) as Fire Control Officer. Then in 1962 LCDR KIRK was appointed as Weapons Officer aboard the same ship. From the BORDELON he attended the U.S. Naval Destroyer School and in 1964 was assigned to the USS J.C. JONES (DD-776) as Engineer Officer. Then in January of 1967 LCDR KIRK started Postgraduate School at the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School, with study in Oceanography. Upon completion of school he became the Commanding Officer of the USS HARNETT COUNTY (LST-821). After his tour of CO he then became Assistant Officer in Charge of the Atlantic Underwater Test and Evaluation Center. Then it was back to school. This time to the United States Naval War College, while at the same time working for and receiving his Masters of Marine Affairs from the University of Rhode Island. LCDR KIRK came to his present command as Executive Officer of the USS ANCHORAGE (LSD-36) in 1973.

Lieutenant Commander KIRK has been awarded the Bronze Star, the Navy Unit Citation, the Viet Nam Campaign Medal and Service Medal, the Navy and Armed Forces Expeditionary Medals, and the National Defense Service Medal.
