ENCLOSURE (1)

PART IINARRATIVE SUMMARY

During the period covered by this report, the 7th Motor Transport Battalion prepared for embarkation aboard USN vessels for the return to CONUS and, after preparations had been completed, embarked aboard the USS Tulare, USS Anchorage, and the USS Alamo for the actual voyage, arriving CONUS approximately three weeks later.

From the first of February until the actual embarkation aboard the vessels began, 7th Motor Transport Battalion was based at the FLC "stand-down" area in DaNang, RVN. The time was utilized in the preparation of personnel and equipment for the voyage. On the 12th of February an advance party from "B" Company departed DaNang aboard the USS Tulare, arriving at Camp Pendleton, the future home of the Battalion, on 1 March. The remainder of "B" Company was placed in a cadre status.

On the 19th of February the Battalion Headquarters, "A" Company (Rein), and Headquarters and Service Company (-) and one platoon from the 3rd Bridge Company embarked aboard the USS Anchorage (LSD-36), departing at 2000 the same day. Transport Company and "C" Company embarked aboard the USS Alamo and also departed DaNang on the 19th of February.

During the 21 day voyage the Battalion conducted inspections, held classes on shipboard life and other subjects, and conducted normal maintenance on the vehicles. The voyage was interrupted by a refueling stop at Subic Bay, Phillipine Islands. The USS Anchorage arrived at Camp Pendleton, California, on 12 March, docking at Camp Del Mar. The USS Alamo arrived on the 13th of March, also docking at Camp Del Mar.
