RELEASE #240-87

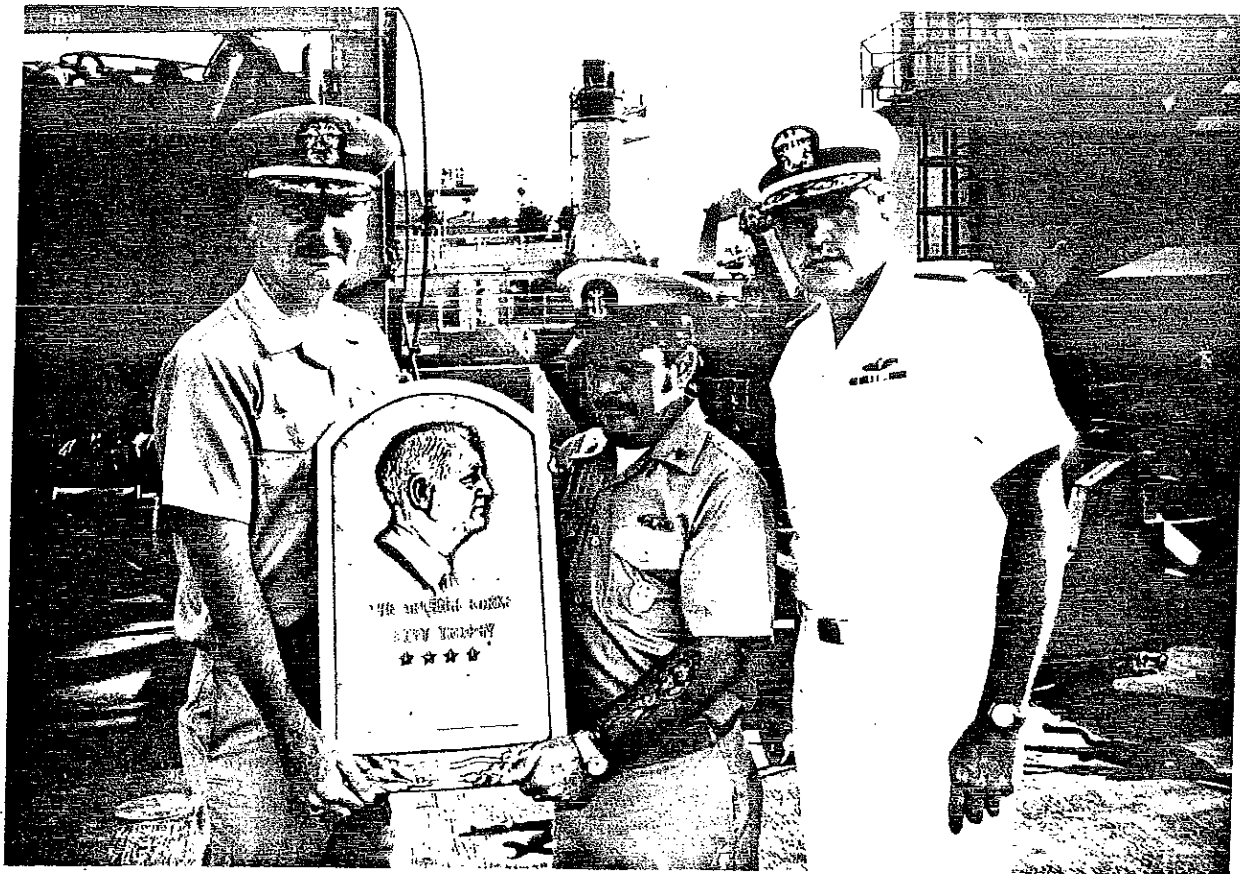

USS ANCHORAGE (LSD-36) WINS ARLEIGH BURKE FLEET TROPHY

Subic Bay, RP ... Commander Michael C. Wein, commanding officer of USS Anchorage (L) holds trophy with MMCM (SW) Frank V. Jones, CMC, Anchorage. Vice Admiral Paul David Miller, Commander SEVENTH Fleet, presented them with the award. The Arleigh Burke Fleet Trophy is given in recognition of the ship or aircraft squadron achieving the greatest improvement in battle efficiency during the competitive period, is indicative of superb leadership and dedicated performance of duty on the part of all hands.

The achievement of USS Anchorage is considered particularly noteworthy as it was accomplished during a period of high-tempo operations and stringent resource limitations. The Anchorage is homeported in Long Beach, CA. (Photo by PHCS Ronald W. Bayles, USN)
